MEDIA STATEMENT

The Cabinet of Antigua and Barbuda directed the Passport Division to present to it the complete list of all persons bearing Antigua and Barbuda Diplomatic Passports. The list was provided to the Minister of Foreign Affairs today, Wednesday, July 12, 2017. The list is being made public immediately.

Its publication is in satisfaction of a promise made by the Prime Minister, in Parliament, to release the entire list of Antigua and Barbuda diplomatic passports issued within recent times.

The list reveals that 186 diplomatic passports have been issued within recent times. 161 of those passports were issued to citizens of Antigua and Barbuda; 25 passports were issued to foreign-born nationals and, in several instances, to their spouses also.

The 161 Antiguans and Barbudans include the Governor General and his spouse, the elected members of the Lower House and their spouses, the President of the Senate and her spouse, the Speaker of the House and several members of the Upper House. The Leader of the Opposition and those appointed to serve in Missions and Embassies abroad. Those who have been knighted, and those who have served more than 20 years in the Parliament of Antigua and Barbuda. The bearers received their travel documents in keeping with the policy announced by the Cabinet five months ago in February, governing the issuance of Antigua and Barbuda diplomatic passports. That policy was made public shortly after its adoption for all the world to see. It has since been adopted by several Caribbean countries, virtually unaltered.

The foreign-born nationals who were issued Antigua and Barbuda diplomatic passports were appointed to serve as Honorary Consuls, Ambassadors-at-Large, Ambassadors to specific countries or international bodies. Since Antigua and Barbuda, as a small state, is unable to place Consulates and Embassies in many far-flung capitals, the practice is long-established among virtually all small states to appoint those well-connected people to states that can serve their interests. The diplomats will then be assigned to those capitals where the appointees exercise influence and can benefit the sending state. In our case, Antigua and Barbuda has realized immeasurable benefits from the diplomatic appointments of foreign-born nationals, despite their relatively small number.

This strategy of appointing nationals of other states to represent the sending state is commonly conducted by large states also, when they do not have a physical presence in the form of an Embassy or Consulate in capitals and big cities, around the world. Several citizens of Antigua and Barbuda have been appointed by foreign governments of large and small states to be Honorary Consuls right here in Antigua. The appointing states do not have a regular Embassy or Consulate in our country, and rely upon those appointed to serve their interests or their citizens' interests.

The Gaston Browne administration inherited several appointees of the outgoing Spencer/Lovell administration. Several of those appointments have been revoked, and a small number were honoured. Among those honoured is Jian Hua Xia, whose appointment was extended for two years. His appointment has since expired. Mr. Alberto Dalva's diplomatic appointment was also honoured by the incoming administration, but has since been revoked. Francis Lorenzo and Luiz Franca have had their appointments revoked or expired, after having been appointed by the Spencer/Lovell administration. The John Ashe scandal and the Odebrecht debacle revealed the kind of arrangement that was made when the Spencer/Lovell administration appointed several foreign-born diplomats, including these two and one other.

The Gaston Browne administration has been open and transparent in its appointments and has not embarrassed the state or its people in the three years of its first term. The new administration, since June 12, 2014, has been transparent, and has lived by its good governance code. It has nothing to hide.
